General sales conditions

General sales conditions are withheld from the client but it is accepted that all orders are adhered to in a satisfactory manner.

2. The client is required to meet the prices and conditions according to the period in which the product is ordered, apart from variations in the product listing itself where the time at which the order was placed is what counts.

3. The order is agreed upon except in cases of "Armet Approval" and is followed through with the sending of the signed order confirmation along with the conditions of sale.

4. Prices are calculated in Euro exclusive of VAT Ex works Brescello (RE).

5. Delivery shall be organised from the Armet plant: in the case of transport organised on the buyer's end, Art. 1510 of the C.C. paragraph II is applied. In this case, the transport of goods is at the buyer's risk and is delivered by lorry (loading and unloading are excluded).

6. Goods will be transported when client is advised with notification that goods are ready for delivery. In the case of delay or delivery deferment of over 15 days since the notification to charge warehousing costs.

7. Standard packaging (boxing and/or double-protection film) is included in the price. Other types of packaging are added to the cost of the product.

8. Estimated picking times for goods ordered, as notified on order confirmation, are always indicative and apart from exceptional circumstances (which cannot be avoided) which may prolong the order process. As a result, any compensation requests for damage and/or any variations in the price and payment conditions as presented in our order confirmation.

9. Complaints or disputes over manufacturing faults should be indicated on the parcel bill or by registered post and no more than eight days after receipt of goods. Returns are not accepted without valid reason and advance authorisation.

10. In the case of complaint, the responsibility of Armet is limited to product exchange or at its own discretion the crediting of the amount billed. Any damage action or compensation for third party damage is excluded from this condition.

11. Sale is made according to supply ex art. 1523 and subsequent C.C. apart from cases established in art. 1525. In the case of lack of payment of one or more instalments, Armet reserves the right to end the contract. In this case, any previously paid instalments will be retained by Armet in the form of rent payments without affecting the principle rights of the seller.

12. Armet reserves the right to bring about any modification to products on this list and/or their manufacturing and without advance notification.

13. All the Armet srl products are covered by a guarantee only for the standard use of the product. Any controversies shall be addressed in the competent Parma Law Court.

Instructions and terms of use

The producer declines every responsibility to the improper use of the products. In particular, we specify that:

1. The employed materials are of exclusive internal use only, are not therefore suitable to be positioned on balconies, porches and every other place subject to atmospheric agents if it is not declared the contrary.
2. Materials are not fit for particularly humid premises or rooms with liquids and vapours stagnation; the materials are not moreover sterilizable less if express it is not declared.
3. It is recommended to follow the attached assembly instructions for supplied knocked down articles using the hardware equipped.
4. The safety is recommended through:
 - Fixation of the modules by appropriate perforation on the sides (screws excluded)
 - alignment
 - grounding
 - fixation to wall
 - fixation back against back (in case of open space room) in order to avoid the roll-over or the damaging to things or people in case of collision.
5. The cleaning of the products must be with a humid cloth and neutral products, not abrasives, without chlorine or acid substances
6. We recommend to make periodically execute the review, the maintenance or the substitution of worn parts from qualified staff purposely indicated from the producer. The lack use of the over described devices and the improper use of the product and its components when verified, will make to decay the guarantee immediately and will raise the producer from whichever responsibility.
